MEMBERSHIP MINUTE "WHAT DOES ROTARY MEAN TO ME?" CLAYTON WONG

I have been a structural engineer for over 20 years. When I became an engineer, I took an oath to accept the "obligation to uphold the safety and welfare of the public, above all else." This oath has become an integral part of my life and has given me a seamless integration into my life as a Rotarian. The 4-Way Test has also become part of my daily life because it makes sense that above all else; integrity is the foundation of my work, my communications and my life. It is an honor for me to be a Rotarian, but it is also very simple for me to be a Rotarian. It takes time to do anything well, and I am willing to give my time to the many opportunities we have to serve. I greatly appreciate this point in my life, since I don't distinguish between personal integrity and professional integrity. My clients are my friends, my competitors are my friends and my fellow Rotarians are my friends. Rotary complements my life, and as I strive to live the 4-Way Test, fulfills my goal to live honestly and simply.
